

Hints, Encouragement and Liaison for Parents!

Join us on Monday mornings and we will help to demystify dyslexia, give you ideas and strategies to help you support your child and guide you on the best way to talk to and liaise with the professionals in your child's life.

Grandparents and other adult family members may like to join you as you find out more about the challenging and rewarding world of dyslexia!

Hear what our parents say about our course:
